

As an architectural firm specializing in residential design, we have had the pleasure of working with Phillips Brothers Contracting on several of our more challenging projects. They have consistently demonstrated the utmost professionalism and integrity while executing these projects with great vision and attention to detail. Their well-tested reputation for quality, on-time, and on-budget construction has earned our highest level of trust, thereby allowing us to confidently refer them to our most discerning clients.

O. Timothy White, AIBD
Principal
The Optim Group